Testimonials

"Teachers-Teachers.com is a site that does much of the work for you. After I submitted my resume, the opportunities began to appear. It's so easy! Without hesitation, I recommend Teachers-Teachers.com to anyone searching for a teaching position."

-Cathy S., Virginia

"I would highly recommend this site for any recent graduate who's looking for work. I got on Teachers-Teachers.com just two weeks ago, and now both my fiancé and I have teaching positions in North Carolina. Again, thank you for your great website."

-Randy L., North Carolina

"Teachers-Teachers.com was incredible! It was a no-hassle method of making myself available to schools across the country. I would recommend the service to anyone! I would never have come across such an amazing job opportunity if it wasn't for Teachers-Teachers.com."

-Kristina C., Georgia

Connecting Qualified Educators with America's Schools

About Us

Teachers-Teachers.com is a FREE service available to all educators who are looking for employment in public or private K-12 school districts. There is no fee to join, nor is there a fee when you are hired. Our service is funded by school districts and educational agencies that pay an annual subscription fee to post their job listings and search our database of candidates. It is our mission to connect candidates with exciting job opportunities throughout the United States in all areas of teaching, administration and other related service positions.

Our website is user-friendly and offers all of the tools candidates will need to complete a universal job application, apply for jobs and track their progress. As a member of Teachers-Teachers.com, candidates have the option of connecting with school systems by searching job postings and submitting their application or by posting their application and waiting for school districts to find and contact them. It's that easy!

How it Works

Register for FREE Membership

Membership with Teachers-Teachers.com is absolutely free! Candidates are not charged to register or to use the service.

Complete Online Application

Candidates complete an online application that can be submitted to employers using Teachers-Teachers.com as well as those who do not.

Indicate Job Preferences

By utilizing our free service, candidates are no longer limited to searching local job listings. Teachers-Teachers.com enables candidates to indicate where they would like to work and the types of schools and positions they are interested in throughout the United States. Candidates have the option to post their applications to be viewed by those employers who meet their identified preferences.

Determine Email Settings

Candidates automatically receive email notification when new jobs are posted that match their preferences. Candidates may also modify their settings to accept special announcements from employers and our partner associations.

View and Manage Job Postings

Candidates can log-in to their personal account to view job postings that match their preferences. Through our Job Posting Management System they have the option to save postings and keep notes on the progress they've made.

Send Cover Letters and Applications

Candidates have the option to create and save multiple cover letters that can be sent along with their application when responding to a posting or email from a prospective employer.

Track Job Search

Candidates can use our Application History section to track all cover letters and applications sent through Teachers-Teachers.com.

Get Hired

Upon finding their ideal job, candidates should notify Teachers-Teachers.com to inactivate their account. Information will be stored for one year should the candidate need to utilize the service in the future.
